

High-Speed DSL

Enjoy fast Internet access and exceptional customer support with ViaWest and Qwest High-Speed DSL.

Available for a flat monthly rate, ViaWest and Qwest DSL Megabit Services offer speeds ranging from 256 Kbps to 7.1 Mbps, allowing you to quickly send and receive emails, browse the web, stream video or audio files, or even support a VPN. With ViaWest and Qwest DSL Megabit Services, you'll enjoy the best of both worlds: Qwest service-level assurances that include higher uploading and downloading speeds and quick response to service requests, along with specialized technical support from ViaWest.

¹ Available line speeds vary depending on your proximity to Qwest's central office.

² ViaWest limits message size to 15 MB (incoming and outgoing). Maximum mailbox size is 20 MB (total).

³ Prices do not include a modem, which is also necessary. Qwest bills separately for monthly DSL line service. Monthly Qwest rate corresponds to a one-year contract. These charges are an estimate and are subject to change without notice. Ask your ViaWest representative about any options that may provide additional savings.
